

Two Entwined

Scott Matthews

In the doorway she stands defined,
As I say to myself she's mine,
From memory I trace outlines of you now

Another hotel I look for your sign,
Set my watch to the Zurich time,
Every night feels a mountain to climb
Without you now

Two entwined

Gracing earth otherworldly and bright,

From a place and time undefined,
You so tenderly settle my eyes come the night

Although we're apart sometimes,
Forever our souls intertwine

Two entwined,
We are two entwined,
We are two entwined,
We are entwined
