

Waltz At Nightfall

Scott Matthews

I can see you,
A clear-eyed dream within my view,
These whispering streets
Led me to the heart of you,
The clock states it's almost time,
To bring the dream to life

Five minutes to...
We're waiting

The hands show it's three,
More minutes of curiosity,
Crowds of intrigue wait with bated breath

Ten seconds to...

Releasing a wave of sights,
Faces glow,
I wish the day away,
So the night can explode,
Your illusions and your sleight of hand delight,
I could die and live this night forever

Bathe in a sea of white,
Watching the crows multiply,
As they black out the view
Melt in your garden of ice,
Here where the warm hearts thrive,
Frozen in blue

Releasing a wave of sights,
Faces glow,
I wish the day away,
So the night can explode,
Your illusions and your sleight of hand delight,
I could die and live this night,
Freeze this time forever

In this hallway of mirrors,
Dance a ballet in flight,
One that's real now, It's real now,
You're real once again
