

When Love Is Not Enough

Scott Stapp

Seven years since you said goodbye
Your old soul went west
Left the fight for some peace of mind
Your spirit needed rest

Fell down a deep, dark hole
And crawled out on your own
Reached out to the rising sun
And it slipped away
It slipped away

When love is not enough
To heal the pain within
When ashes turn to dust
You learn to live again
When love is not enough

Hit the bottom with your ghosts
Tearing branded skin
Bleeding out and turning cold
Stitch your soul back in
Reached out to the chosen one
To find my way
To find a way

When love is not enough
To heal the pain within
When ashes turn to dust
You learn to live again
When love is not enough

There's a voice inside that never dies
That you betray
Through the lies that you disguise
We'll find a way
We'll find a way

When love is not enough
To heal the pain within
When ashes turn to dust
You learn to live again

When love is not enough
When love is not enough
When love is not enough
When love is not enough
