Son

Scott Weiland

Coolness is staring at that sun Coolness is driving with my son Time and time again I'm not the man Time and time again I'm not the one

Now got to sleep you little child of mine I wish I had the beauty you hold inside Now go to sleep you little boy of mine You make the world a better place to find

Ah

Now got to sleep you little child of mine I wish I had the beauty you hold inside Now go to sleep you little boy of mine

You make the world a better place to find ${\tt Ah}$
