

Dancing with You

Scouting for Girls

Sticks and stones may break my bones
It's true
But nothing hurts like not being with you
I'm Mr Listless, staring at the sky
He said "Blackbird, won't you come and pass the time?"

It's a beautiful day
But I'm a cynic
Sky-blue sun on the way
But my heart's not in it
Help me, brother
I think I love her

Woah, oh, oh
I should be dancing with you
Woah, oh, oh, yeah I should
'Cause if I could (If I could then I would)
I would be dancing with you
I'd be dancing with you

Colonel Mustard's house is up for sale
They told him that his check was in the mail
Maggie May, she went and broke his heart
(Did you know, did you know, did you know, did you know)
She made him cry when he played her guitar

It's a beautiful day
But he can't see it
Purple rain on the brain
But I thought we did it
Oh my god
I think it's love

Woah, oh, oh
I should be dancing with you
Woah, oh, oh, yeah I should
'Cause if I could (If I could then I would)
I would be dancing with you
I'd be dancing with you

Always a little bit of you in my heart
No one's gonna see me dancing
There ain't no music without you

Woah, oh, oh
I should be dancing with you
Woah, oh, oh, yeah I should
'Cause if I could (If I could if I could)
I would be dancing with you
I'd be dancing with you

Hey you with the pretty face!

Woah, oh, oh
I should be dancing with you
Woah, oh, oh, yeah I should
'Cause if I could (If I could then I would)

I would be dancing with you
I'd be dancing with you

Oh, do, do, do do, do do
I'd be dancing with you
If I could then I would
I'd be dancing with you
I'd be dancing with you
