

The Missing Part

Scouting for Girls

And there's a hole in my heart and you're the missing part

My life had spiralled out of all recognition
A jigsaw puzzle but with half of it missing
You came along and you figured me out
Put me back together and turned me around

Easy as one two three, darling say you'll marry me
There's a hole in my soul, when I'm with you then it goes
Rock like AC/DC, we were meant to be
See that hole in my heart, you're the missing part

One two three, darling say you'll marry me
There's a hole in my soul, when I'm with you then it goes
Rock like AC/DC, we were meant to be
See that hole in my heart, you're the missing part

I used to wake up thinking something was glitching
My life of black-and-white TV transmission
You lit me up just like a firework
You coloured me in as I watched your colours burst

Easy as one two three, darling say you'll marry me
There's a hole in my soul, when I'm with you then it goes
Rock like AC/DC, we were meant to be
See that hole in my heart, you're the missing part

One two three, darling say you'll marry me
There's a hole in my soul, when I'm with you then it goes
Rock like AC/DC, we were meant to be
See that hole in my heart, you're the missing part

Don't go
There's a hole in my heart and you're the missing part
Don't go
There's a hole in my heart, you're the missing part

I know it, you know it, we fit together
It's like a designer made us to measure
I know it, you know it, say it's forever
No one fits me better, I'll never let you go

One two three, darling say you'll marry me (Marry me)
There's a hole in my soul, when I'm with you then it goes
Rock like AC/DC, we were meant to be
See that hole in my heart, you're the missing part

Don't go (One two three, darling say you'll marry me)
There's a hole in my heart and you're the missing part (Missing part)
Don't go (Rock like AC/DC, we were meant to be)
See that hole in my heart, you're the missing part
