

B.A.B.E.

Scowl

Everyone else just play along
Everyone else just signing on a dotted line
But you don't even want to hear it
You don't really want to see
No shaking hands, I'm shutting down
I'm shutting down entirely

Burned at both ends, yeah it just won't let up
I want to catch my breath
Everyone here could you please just shut up?
I gotta catch my breath

Why does the good stuff never last?
Everything sacred finds its way to filthy hands
Make no mistake, I ain't lacking in ambition
I'm digging my heels
I'm not taking your sour pills

Burned at both ends, yeah it just won't let up
I want to catch my breath
Everyone here could you please just shut up?
I gotta catch my breath

Don't know any other way, comfort in the suffering
Don't know any other way, comfort in the suffering
Got no feeling, seek the thrill, I'm only in this for the kill Got no feeling, just thrill seeking, in this for the-

Take and you take and you just won't let up
But you've gotta catch your breath
Everyone here could you please just shut up?
But I'll never catch my breath...
