

Fantasy

Scowl

Let it out
Is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there or here or talking to me?
Crying out to anybody out there
Is anybody out there the same?
Quit craving purity

Couldn't really quite explain
Replace the pain with fantasy
It's out there, out there
Never find right words to say
Replace the pain with fantasy
It's out there, out there

Covered mouth
Don't let anybody else hear 'cause everybody else here's afraid
Of connecting with me
I can see it now, but I can't let it out
Got lost in all my feelings, I'll stay
And disintegrate

Couldn't really quite explain
Replace the pain with fantasy
It's out there, out there
Never find right words to say
Replace the pain with fantasy
It's out there, out there

Fly high
Fade to gray
I don't seem that wide awake
My mind's run to a different place
This fantasy disintegrates
This fantasy disintegrates
