

Pay Privilege Due

Scowl

You pretend to be so pissed safe at home
Where the fuck is your raised fist?
The fear of God does it keep you oh so blind from the violence?
The power you hold and the message you're behind
What we witness and the words we scream
The power you hold and the message you're behind
This shit isn't just a pipe dream
You're so brainwashed to think what we stand for means pillage and flame, destruct and dismay
Is it so hard to see?
Injustice that lies below your feet, the price that's been paid
, death off the plate you eat
Nothing to say again you'll turn away
Tie your noose choke on the words you say
