

New Song

Scream

New Song!

What I say about how I feel
Just to make a difference
Goes to show how you act
What will come next?
I won't tell you what to do
For someone else will
But I've got something to say

Look around and tell me what you see
Do you realize things ain't what they used to be?
I've filled my head with problems
I've messed my mind with problems that I care about
Once over
