

Dead By Dawn

Screeching Weasel

The room is sideways, flips, and then begins to shrink
Cackling away, ever so slightly out of sync
While my extremities convulse
And spasm in symphonic harmony

Dead by dawn
Dead by dawn
Is it a heart attack?
Is it a heart attack?
Dead by dawn
Dead by dawn
Is it a heart attack?
Is it a heart attack?

The sirens wail off in the distance as I fade
A diabolically insistent serenade
Bone shatters as my chest bursts out
But to reveal a hostile alien nest

Dead by dawn
Dead by dawn
Is it a heart attack?
Is it a heart attack?
Dead by dawn
Dead by dawn
Is it a heart attack?
Is it a heart attack?

My guts slit open
All my insides spill out
As if to cruelly taunt me before I die

Tonight I'll swallow your soul
Tonight I'll swallow your soul
Tonight I'll swallow your soul
Dead by dawn
