Screeching Weasel

you walk down the street dare me to look playing the game by pr imitive rules what went so wrong that both of us care who wins this dispute it's hard to believe you've conquered a square fiv e by five feet won with your stare it's fuckinig cement okay i give up the battle is yours what's next half a block it's hard to believe things have become insane when all you'll fight for is a piece of sidewalk and do you keep score an ddo you look ba ck and count victories when things start feeling hopeless it's hard to believe
