Theme From The Crusader

Scribe

Yeah, 1, 2, yes yes
Uh, Scribble is back

Uh, I'm from Christchurch the place of my birth
My home this earth, represent my peeps and there worth
Phillips town Philly baby translating the zone
Kind of sore, entrepenour rocking this microphone
I get busy like Bone, keep my whole sphere in harmony
Can it be one of the worlds best from Canterbury Straight from the under , the Scribe the eighth wonder Make no mistake and tell us the rock, the day is over
I'm creepin on the come up from the squid and the pimp
Drivable wizardry for your whole atmostphere
Watch me do this for the love like 'Salmonella Dub'
I don't get caught up, I'm the world you know we stay above
The physical is selfish and the spiritual is us Lyrically combust in our day it is a must
So whilel your mics rust Im'a prove my crews well'a
Im from the hometown of 'The Feelers' and we don't feel ya

Its the Crusader, represent city to shine (check it out world w ide we got beats and flows) Its the Crusader, represent city to shine (recognize the way we drop this universal)

Its the Crusader, tight like Nathan and Aaron Mauger
Do it first, talk later
I'm running things like I'm Robbie Deans, I got a champion team
And you can hate it if you want but I'm living my dream
I'm on the road to the Holy Grail and I will never fail
I get props, I keep 'em locked like Norman Maxwell
You know I rap well thats for certain
Because I'm on point like Andrew Mehrtens
So for you fake MC's its curtains
I'm steppin up a level, for the silver I could never settle
I'm takin the gold medal
I suggest you do the same
You best improve your game or get burnt by the Canterbury Flame s
The home town of Anika Moa, Crusading through this war Best to find out who you fighting for 'Cause I'm the best and there's none greater
Both sides of the equator, I battle like a gladiator
