

I Got Caught Checking Out That Girl

Scrubs

yeah i saw this girl she was so fine she had everything going for her short purple hair and a black leather jacket oh how i wanted to fuck her but when she looked back at me i knew she could tell what i was doing i tripped on my shoelace and fell on my face yeah i got caught checking out that girl i was walking down high street that day on my way to the record store i saw that girl and she left me speechless i walked right into a pole

i didn't know what to say she just smiled at me mockingly but we started talking and i couldn't believe it that girl wanted to go home with me yeah
