

I got this pain in my body, but keep lying to myself
Pop that, trying to get over it, but I'm here by myself
I been, keep taking losses, trying to turn an L to an M
I been slept on so long, don't need nobody to help

Ain't trying to go back to my old ways
They still be stuck in the old days
Some shit ain't worth it its okay
You gotta know if it ain't you, it ain't nobody else
Been through a lot, yeah I go down, but ain't nobody help
I've been thugging since a shawty, I ain't never sleep
Sometimes I froze, it was cold days
You gotta know just how to move or get your body wrapped

Keep my niggas on the side, you know they wilding out
Everywhere a nigga go, I keep that cannon out
I got fo and them in my head, like I keep dazing out
I been focused on a lot, so I stay faded now
I still love all of my niggas so I'm breathing through em
I fuck hoe after hoe so I keep meeting dues
And I ain't playing no games unless I make the rules
These niggas hate to see me win so I can't fuck with lose
Somehow been caught up in my feelings lately
Smoking til a nigga pain [?]
Too far from the bottom, can't sink
They wanna take a nigga's sanity

Ain't trying to go back to my old ways
They still be stuck in the old days
Some shit ain't worth it its okay
You gotta know if it ain't you, it ain't nobody else
Been through a lot, yeah I go down, but ain't nobody help
I've been thugging since a shawty, I ain't never sleep
Sometimes I froze, it was cold days
You gotta know just how to move or get your body wrapped

I been through it all, done seen it all, but keep my tears to myself
Slowly tryna watch all my steps
If I rewind time, what would be your last line
Tell me would you leave or just regret you was here
She got a lot up on they [?] cause they ain't [?]
These niggas greezy, they just tryna find a way
I got my peoples out the hood, we doing great
But I got folks that I love that I can't really fuck with Yeah It ain't nothing but tough love, cause I can't sit around
I been slow to show love, but I tripping bout it
Don't need nothing but your love, cause I ain't been around it
Don't need the rest long as you here with me

Ain't trying to go back to my old ways
They still be stuck in the old days
Some shit ain't worth it its okay
You gotta know if it ain't you, it ain't nobody else
Been through a lot, yeah I go down, but ain't nobody help
I've been thugging since a shawty, I ain't never sleep
Sometimes I froze, it was cold days
You gotta know just how to move or get your body wrapped
