Sdot Go

(Don't wanna fall to fall in love that shi-)

Don't wanna fall in love that shit risky
One day they love you then start moving illy
Like, I'm in love how you moving, you with me?
Like, treat her better than all of my bitches
Don't accept anything that she get me
I'mma get you whatever as long as you listen
She feel a way every time I go missing

You a baddie, just do what you do
Before you be my girl, let me see how you move
She's saying "Dot, like let me line the opps"
Like, you don't gotta go through the things that I do
I just might keep her cause that bitch a bad bitch
You gotta pick me and him you can have him
Don't – Don't know what's wrong, why you asking?
If I tell you I'm hurt would you think that I'm cappin?
When I'm alone, I just talk to myself
Taking drugs for the pain, it's just hurting my health
Think I'm good cause I don't ask for help
Told me she ain't been cheating like, how could I tell?
I do not like when we yell
Fuck her till I make her yell
I keep tryna go back think I'm under a spell
Last time that we spoke, she told me "Go to hell"
