Sea Girls

It's all about cars
And different ways to pollute
Now it's all about buying
New pairs of the same size shoes
And now it's all about hormones
And feeling different shades of blue
Now it's all about vinyl
'Cause there's nothing left that's new

When we're all out of bedroom floors
Horror movies, I'm still yours
I wanna lie here on the concrete
Under your feet on your street
I wanna kiss you
Like the first time that I missed you

Do you remember when we were younger?
Do you remember how we were younger?

And now it's all about markets
And what does money do?
Does it buy you happiness?
Well it certainly doesn't buy you
Getting on with computers
Getting off the commute
Now it's all dating apps
'Cause your phone really does love you

When we're all out of bedroom floors
Horror movies, I'm still yours
I wanna lie here on the concrete
Under your feet on your street
And I wanna kiss you
Like the first time that I missed you

Do you remember when we were younger?
Oh, do you remember how we were younger?

And now it's all about sex
And who's gonna want you
Why've we so many questions
When no one's got a goddamn clue?

I wanna lie here on the concrete
Under your feet on your street
And I wanna kiss you
Like the first time that I missed you

Do you remember when we were younger?
Oh, do you remember how we were younger?
It wasn't that long ago
When we were younger

Now it's all about rain
And wearing the right clothes
Now it's all about pain
And taking pills so it goes
