Seafood

Remove the tie and you will find that the details are now complete and hope is a word that we both hope for the changing seasons we both need and You're so beautiful when you shine for me and You're so beautiful when you shine, oh

There's not much left, it's been so long and this reflection has not been kind So we place our hands in these foreign skys it's so easy to forget

You're so beautiful when you shine for me
You're so beautiful when you shine for me
You're so beautiful when you shine for me
You're so beautiful when you shine, oh
