

Dandelion

Seahaven

First kiss to last it was June to June
The years with you in between
Have another for me, for me

Mishap in greener grass, it left a stain
It sent you home with the blues
I'll have another for you, for you

Where in your heart do you hide me?
Is it six feet below what you show?
Keep your voice quiet if you love me tonight
Wouldn't want anyone to know

You look so comfortable
I need a miracle
The clock keeps on taunting me
With each setting sun
Mostly I wallow here
Self loathing superstar
The weather seems better there
Wherever you are
Can I get anything?
Some sort of offering
Share with me your secret
Of how you keep this at bay
Slip into a dream of mine
Turn into a dandelion
Welcome in the hurricane
I wish all the best things for you

For you
For you
For you
For you
For you
For you
For you
For you
