

Lost

Seahaven

What would you do if we met again?
Would you choose to just be friends?
Calculate the good and bad
And was it worth it in the end?

What will you do when I make the move?
Costa Rica: you're gonna lose
Would it change your point of view?
Or would the search still be for you?

Maybe we found that unconditional
Maybe now, we're lost
Or maybe we found that just not good enough
Maybe may be lost
