

When It Comes To You

Sean Paul

When it comes to you, there ain't no satisfaction
Every night with you is harder than the last one
There ain't no, no such thing as enough of your love
No such thing, give me some of your love
No such thing as enough of your love

Baby girl, 'cah you got me caught right from beginning
Like a diamond shine glistening
Got me fiendin', I'm trippin' in love
Don't wanna fi fall in dis ting, love
Put your pressure in my adrenaline
Baby girl, 'cah you done already win
I'm in the kingdom, bring me the meatloaf
Let me in, love

Baby girl, 'cause just one time
Girl, it's never enough for me
I need one more night
Girl, it's never enough, never enough
Baby girl, one more dance is never enough for me
One more chance, never enough, never enough

When it comes to you, there ain't no satisfaction
Every night with you is harder than the last one
There ain't no, no such thing as enough of your love
No such thing give me some of your love
No such thing as enough of your love
When it comes to you

You make me and me friend dem fall out
Baby girl, you know I'm going all out
You so hard stepping, you know it's me rappin'
For you, girl, any minute, any likkle second
Mi waan get a call, waan get a shoutout
Hear me, girl, you know there ain't no dawg
You are my queen, don't treat me like scum
Listen to the words from me mouth

Baby girl, 'cause just one time
Girl, it's never enough for me
I need one more night
Girl, it's never enough, never enough
Baby girl, one more dance is never enough for me
One more chance, never enough, never enough

When it comes to you, there ain't no satisfaction
Every night with you is harder than the last one
There ain't no, no such thing as enough of your love
No such thing give me some of your love
No such thing as enough of your love
When it comes to you

Everyday mi want it, can't calm
Everyday mi want it, sound di alarm
Everyday mi want it, can't calm
No such thing, no such thing, no such thing

When it comes to you, there ain't no satisfaction
Every night with you is harder than the last one
There ain't no, no such thing as enough of your love
No such thing give me some of your love
No such thing as enough of your love
When it comes to you
