

Nothing Like You

Sean Stemaly

I've seen an Indiana sky
And watched the sun rise over Georgia pines
Looked down on the Rockies from a red-eye flight
And up at harvest moon
Been front-porch sitting while the thunder rolls
Seen the waves crash down on every coast
And I thought I'd seen it all
But girl I was wrong

'Cause I've never seen nothing like you
Every little thing that you do
It hits me like a hundred proof
When you slide up next to me
Yeah, you put it all to shame
I think about you all damn day
And I could get used to this view
'Cause I've never seen nothing like you

Never seen nothing like you
Nothing like you
Nothing like you
Never seen nothing like you
Nothing like you
Nothing like you

I knew it was over right from the start
Your body's pulling every string in my heart
Your eyes shine brighter than the southern stars
Baby I swear

I've never seen nothing like you
Every little thing that you do
It hits me like a hundred proof
When you slide up next to me
Yeah, you put it all to shame
I think about you all damn day
And I could get used to this view
'Cause I've never seen nothing like you

Never seen nothing like you
Nothing like you
Nothing like you
Never seen nothing like you
Nothing like you
Nothing like you
Oh
Mm mm

I've never seen nothing like you
Every little thing that you do
It hits me like a hundred proof
When you slide up next to me
Yeah, you put it all to shame
I think about you all damn day
And I could get used to this view
'Cause I've never seen nothing like you

Never seen nothing like you
Nothing like you
Nothing like you
Never seen nothing like you
Nothing like you
Nothing like you
Oh
Nothing like you
Nothing like you
Naw girl
