Searows

You're in the kitchen
Counting up all my thoughts
You're on a mission to see what this could cause
Take it or leave it
I'm on the edge of fright
And I'm wrapped in pieces that don't look the same

Give me a reason
Give me a sign
That I'd never make it out in the long term
Give me a reason
Give me a sign
That I'm never gonna make it out
I'm on my knees and you're on the easy line
I'd never live a day on the outside
Give me a reason

You're a kitchen listening to me go off
And you keep insisting it's all gonna take a while
This shit is tough it's enough that there's nothing to do
You're making a fool out of me and you

Give me a reason
Give me a sign
That I'll never make it out in the long term
Give me a reason
Give me a little sign
That I'm never gonna make it out
And I'm on my knees and you're on the easy line
I'd never live a day in the real life

I need a reason

I need a reason
I need a real [?]
Close enough that I can feel you
Lord is teasing I put it on
And I need a reason
You need all my time and it's never gonna get you the real life
I need a reason
