

Days Gone

Seasick Steve

Yes sir, alright
Yes sir, well

Oh, where have my days gone
I know that I'm getting old
But my spirit's still strong
There are days I rise in fear
But I must carry on
Oh Lord, where have my days gone

Get up, yes
Stand up, Lord

Oh my children you are not immune
Enjoy yourself 'cause your day comin' soon
Don't waste your time worryin' about
Things you cannot change
Life's to be lived
Not to arrange

Get up, ok
Stand up, well

That's alright
That's all good

Yes sir, alright
Yes ma'am, what?

Oh, where have my days gone
I know that I'm getting old
But my spirit's still strong
There are days I rise in fear
But I must carry on
Oh Lord, where have my days gone

Yes sir, alright
yes ma'am, alright
