

Last Rodeo

Seasick Steve

When the last cowboy rides the last rodeo
I hope I will be long gone
'Cause I don't wanna know
What a world that will be
Not for me

When the last hot rod drives up that last strip
Then it's time to go home
Then it's time to quit
What a world that will be
But not for me

When everything's electric can't smell no gasoline
I guess it will be clean
Some say it's clean
What a world that will be
Just ain't for me

What a world that will be
Wrapped up conveniently
All smooth around the edges
Never rough around the edges
Like me

When the last rock band plays the last rock 'n' roll
Then it's time to go home
Then it's time to go
What a world that will be
Not for me

When the last hello is said when we were on our phones
Then it's time to cry
At least say goodbye
What a world that will be
Just not for me

When the last cowboy rides the last rodeo
I hope I will be long gone
'Cause I don't wanna know
What a world that will be
Just ain't for me

What a world that will be
Wrapped up conveniently
All smooth around the edges
Never rough around the edges

What a world that will be
Wrapped up conveniently
All smooth around the edges
Never rough around the edges
Like me
Like me
Like me

When the last real hello is said when we were on our phones
