

Underneath A Blue And Cloudless Sky

Seasick Steve

Waited so long just to find you
Feel like I've wasted half of my life
I might've wasted one head
But I won't waste the other out right

Won't be no bed of roses but there be a bed
Won't be no fancy wedding
But you'll get wed
Underneath a blue, cloudless sky

Take each other for better or for worse
I love you so much, it hurts
I'll be there when your hair turn gray
I'll be there when your hair turn gray

Won't be no bed of roses but there be a bed
Won't be no fancy wedding
But you'll get wed
Underneath a blue and cloudless sky

Take each other for better or for worse
I love you so much, it hurts
I'll be there when your hair turn gray
Take each other for better or for worse

I love you so much, it hurts
I'll be there when your hair turn gray
I'll be there when your hair turn gray
I'll be there when your hair turn gray
