

Over My Youth

Seaway

Calling it early again,
I'm far from sober,
This isn't closure,
And distractions aren't what they used to be.
Calling it early again,
It's inescapable just how incapable I really am,

I think it's cause it feels like it's never been this way before,
16 was the age where I tried to be over my youth.

I'd be lying if I told you any differently,
Your point of view was lacking trust in all the things I tried to be.

It feels like it's never been this way before,
16 was the age where I tried to be over my youth,
And I'm not saying it was stormy weather,
But it was clear we wouldn't last forever,
You know it's true.

So fuck all the waiting,
The stress I'm creating,
I'm finally here.
16 the age where we tried to be over our youth.
You know it's the truth.

It feels like it's never been this way before,
16 was the age where I tried to be over my youth,
And I'm not saying it was stormy weather,
But it was clear we wouldn't last forever,
You know it's true.
