

Gate to Hell

Sebadoh

Eyes never close; little head never stops

Naked little no-man with a whisper in his walk and hand

Wait, I'm afraid to ask your name

I'd kill myself just to prove it to you

A narrow little girl who looks a lot like you at the scene

I'm afraid to break this shadow

Pretty girl, you crack the gate that leads to hell

Pretty girl, you crack the gate that leads to hell
