

Rain

Sebastian Mikael

Look, rain on my windowpane
Reflect the faults in my life
It's ironic, I said you fake depression and look at me now
Look at me now, I'm stuck in my mind (My mind)
And I'm tryna put it back in motion
Oh, oh, baby
See, it's kind of hard to function
With this dope in my veins, goin' broke these days
On a hiatus, tryna put it back in motion (Motion, yeah)
Thank God for this moment of revelation

Lost with the odds against me, I'm alive and well
Oh, I can't forget I died back when bottle talk was in me
To your surprise I'm selfish, but that's okay
In my book, you got the cards I dealt with, ooh, ayy

Life's on my shoulders, watch out
Shy camera risin', hash touch
These eyes all on you, watch that
Ain't hidin' from a thing now
Best believe that I saw (I saw)
I'll turn that to diamonds, up there too fast
Locked up with your privates, I'm like, "Who's that?"
She loves attention always (Always, always)
Always, always
Always (Always, always)

Yeah, fame, thought it would ease the pain
Got close, the closer you kicked it and not seein' what's in front of you
Was an opening, your blessings got your name right on it
Too busy playing this game, ain't nothin' waitin' on you
Save yourself, gettin' help's the only way up out it
'Bout it, you gotta...

Put it back in motion
Put it back in motion (Yeah, yeah)

You tell me to open up more
I feel like I've been too woke
Scared I'm becomin' hateful
All in my dome, all in my dome
Can tell that I've been broken
Still in repair, I'm focused
Out of fucks, out of luck
Roll one up, anything to lift me up

Tell me to open up more
Scared I'm becomin' hateful
All in my
All in my head, yeah
Head
