Girl, there's a change, I wanna testify
Get this off, off my chest and see you eye to eye
I was thinking of you when I was with her last night (last night)
Trying to give her something that was no longer mine
You and your friends, they always talk 'bout (always talking about)
How I'm not good for you, I'm only for myself
I'm not saying they're wrong, and that's the worst part of how
The stubborn life I'm living don't suit me well

I used to think that I could love you partially, when I please
I come and go like the seasons, falling off like the leaves
I think I'm scared of commitment, play it safe, no promises
But then I see your flag flying, make me wanna pledge allegiance

I will change for you, cut off my games for you (cut 'em off, cut 'em off)
Give you my phone with no security code
Turn off the sauce for you, but that's not all I'll do
I wanna give it all to you

I know you're tired of follow my ways
I know you're tired of finding things
I know you're tired of making that face, eh
Well, honestly I'm tired of cheating
Tired of messages you send to me, yeah
Everyday it's like they getting me killed

I used to think that I could love you partially, when I please
I come and go like seasons, falling off like the leaves
And I think I'm scared of commitment, play it safe, no promises
But then I see your flag flying, make me wanna pledge allegiance

I will change for you, cut off my games for you
Give you my phone with no security code
Turn off the sauce for you, but that's not all I'll do
I wanna give it all to you
