

Below Zero

Sebastian Yatra

I've been waiting way too long way too long to write this song what I'm feeling in my hearth that shit's tearing me apart.

Now i'm feeling so alone the you i used to know is gone just wish i knew what i had done.

All I ever think about is you all I dream about is you I never should've thought that giving you my heart would make you wanna stay and that we'd never fall apart.

You used to hit me up
no we're going down
falling and we can't stop now

You used to hit me up
now we're going down

Just let me go
just let me go
I'm done with everything you said I'm done, i'm gone you're never gonna stay you stay away from me i pray for you
you fight for me and i'll fight for you but baby it ain't everything that you wanna do.

Because in this love now i'm falling away and your heart's sound i'm trying to stay
but if you're not down i'll finally fade there isn't a way to make this better

and that we'd never fall apart.

no we're going down

You used to hit me up
now we're going down

just let me go
I'll fight for you
Zero.
