

Highland Romance

Sebastien

Heavy rain on the shiny river beating down
Greasy pain cutting deep so soon... blinds my eyes
Sweet Elaine do you feel inside bursting light
Like a drain of the morning tide... moving in disguise

Right in the heart of the singing mills
Pipes hovering over Scotland hills

Stirring omen - forever
I'm lost in a sparkling night
Never feel the sound together
Love is like fly in candlelight
When the morning comes in a glory bite
And I leave you - forever
Not even fairies don't know why...

Killing rain and gravid clouds hanging on Feeling pain is like a suicide kiss when you're gone
Sweet Elaine do you feel inside hate or pride?
In a brain where the Jekylls are changing to hide

Right in the heart of the singing mills
Pipes hovering over Scotland hills

Stirring omen - forever
I'm lost in a sparkling night
Never feel the sound together
Love is like fly in candlelight
When the morning comes in a glory bite
And I leave you - forever
Not even fairies don't know why...

Breaking the silence of my loneliness
Thunder is fading at dawn
I cannot stand such a magical bless
Love has the wings made of stone...

Right in the heart of the singing mills...

Stirring omen - forever
I'm lost in a sparkling night
Never feel the sound together
Love is like fly in candlelight
When the morning comes in a glory bite
And I leave you - forever
Not even fairies don't know why...
