

Promises

Sebastien

Bloodlines run through all times
Searchin' which path is mine
Scenes I've known from within
Show me unrevealed sin

Love swept away by September wind
Faces unknown are still whispering

Unwritten stories so hard to be found
Ray of the daylight heals darkness around
Thing they've been promised, things that they've said
Two broken hearts lying naked in the rain

Smiles and tears carved in stone
That stays proud and alone
Tales of my family
Speak if I'm digging deep

I'm winter-born heart, walking on my own
Shelter my past to places unknown

Unwritten stories so hard to be found
Ray of the daylight heals darkness around
Thing they've been promised, things that they've said
Two broken hearts lying naked in the rain

Two broken hearts lying naked in the rain...
