

Sleep In The Glass

Sebastien

I remember
The freezing melody
Sounded so sweet
There's a resurrection of Gerda and Kai...
I remember
The children and the queen
Staring at you
And the January ocean dying...

Piece of glass
Razor shadows
Thrusting in my heart
What a pestilence of life!
...I remember...
Piece of glass
And the night comes
Tearing me apart
Like a slowly rising knife

I surrender
Captured by the Queen
Waiting for you
Like a butterfly who falls upon her spell...
Can't remember
The love song in between
Searching for you
And the January ocean dying...

Piece of glass
And the night comes
Tearing me apart
Like a slowly rising knife

My feeling, last morning
Was like a blow
And long way to home
Is a hell from below
I can feel it, last warning
Falls from the stars
It's long way to love a
And you sleep in the glass

Piece of glass
Razor shadows
Thrusting in my heart
What a pestilence of life!
...I remember...
Piece of glass
And the night comes
Tearing me apart
Like a slowly rising knife

My feeling, last morning
Was like a blow
And long way to home
Is a hell from below
I can feel it, last warning

Falls from the stars
It's long way to love
And you sleep in the glass
