

No Window

Second Person

I don't complain, I only wish I could
But I was never very good at standing up to you

Is another room within led into Another room without a window
Where the view is just a view and the view is you, yeah yeah
Views that I don't share
I've never been so scared to do more than sit in this room with you
And know you like I can't handle it
And you say it's not about winning on the one occasion that I fight b ack
If that's so then why would you attack
'Cause I don't care for war in any sense
I have no talent for self-defense

And I don't complain, I only wish I could
But I was never very good at standing up to you
I don't complain, I only wish I could
But I was never very good at standing up to you

Oh... I don't tell much
I just anticipate and hate your touch
You accuse me of this broken heart that I coped with my pride
On side I tried to stay on your eyesight
Every bus, every tree, every hotel room is the same
It's just me trying to do more of the things you used to love before
I'm happy to agree with what you say
That you think of me, what you think of me
Rob from always on the run is so bad and copy paste is a sin
But I don't complain, oh, and I only wish I could
But I was never very good at standing up to you
I don't complain and I only wish I could
But I was never very good at standing up to you

Oh... I don't complain and I only wish I could
But I was never very good at standing up to you
I don't complain and I just as you miss true
But now we both knew I was never good enough for you

I don't complain and sometimes I think I will
Oh to make myself believe that I'm still in love with you
I don't complain at all, every time I try
'Cause I, there's no long before I want to make love with you

I don't complain and I only wish I could
But I was never very good at standing up to you
