

Find Somebody Else

Secondhand Serenade

You confuse me
Pulling me in just to lose me
All that we've been through
I'm hanging on
Til you make up your mind
I'm hanging on
But I'm sorry darling if we're not enough
And I'm sorry that we fell in love
But I'm staying strong
Hoping you'll come around
Yea I'm hanging on

Til the photos all fade
Til it don't feel the same
Anymore
Til what's left of our hearts
Like a castle of cards
Crashes to the floor
Until the sun goes down
And everything we found
We can't find anymore
But I'm here and I'm yours
Til last candle melts
And you walk out the door
To find somebody else

I still see you
Blowing me a kiss in the rearview
So when you ask why I'm holding on
Oh why can't you see
Why I'm holding on

Til the photos all fade
Til it don't feel the same
Anymore
Til what's left of our hearts
Like a castle of cards
Crashes to the floor
Until the sun goes down
And everything we found
We can't find anymore
But I'm here and I'm yours
Til last candle melts
And you walk out the door
To find somebody else

To find somebody else
Don't find somebody else
Don't find somebody else

Til the photos all fade
Anymore
Crashes to the floor

And everything we found
