

Pixie

Secret And Whisper

Captured you flying into my room.
You're tiny on my pillow.
And I noticed you took a jelly bean,
And your self-esteem,
To this weeping willow.
And you say you're alive,
It doesn't really matter.
When you try it doesn't really matter.

If you try and leave me,
I will take you to higher woods.
You're my only pixie,
You're the only one, the one who understood.

Try to leave when I fell asleep in the night,
You're sneaking out my window.
Tiny thing, can you tell me where you are going,
So I can follow you?

If you try and leave me,
I will take you to higher woods.
You're my only pixie,
You're the only one, the one who understood.

Glitter on my fingers from your body,
I pick your wings, they're fluttering inside me.
You're trembling and sparkling and dying.
Remember me and I'll remember you.
