

Small World

Secret Discovery

I don't think in your ways
I don't believe in your gods
I don't cry when you suffer
I don't forgive your deceits

My life, my decisions,
lost in your world where I can never live
My life, my decisions,
all that I have I won't give away

I don't expect that you love me nor that you understand I don't require your compassion
I just could live without you I want to talk in my own words
I want to feel as myself I'm going to break the silence captive in your small world

My life, my decisions,
lost in your world where I can never live
My life, my decisions,
belong to myself, noone can take away
My life, my decisions,
lost in your world, I can't (don't want to) live inside
My life, my decisions,
all that I have, I won't give away (myself)
