

Honesty

Secret Sphere

The hands of time are standing in a frame
I'm still smiling in the night for night and day ... to be
I've got to find the way to lean into the real

... to please
I'm just a place together we will mend

I'm finding the truth in my eyes
Nobody saw what I've seen
(Still living in my honesty)
All of the pleasure and pain
Leading me out from the rain

There's a rose over the blackest time to trash your bottle to nowhere
You better keep your mouth shut
No worse ... if you know what I mean
Is just a phase that's leading to a whirl

I'm finding the truth in my eyes
Nobody saw what I've seen
(Still living in reality)
All of the pleasure and pain
Leading me out from the rain
(And living in a fantasy)
Finding the truth in their eyes
No one can tell how it feels
(Still ... in my honesty)
... just they tried
... your hearts with my sins

All of the pleasure and - pain
Leading me out from all that I've seen
... apart - Just they tried
... their hearts with my sins

Oh, I'm still living in reality
Hey, living in a fantasy
Still ... in my honesty
My honesty

I was looking for a chance to widely open
I've found the balance ...
So many ways to feel the ... keep going
And see what ...
A real smile
I finally release, yeah

I'm finding the truth in my eyes
Nobody saw what I've seen
(Still living in reality)
All of the pleasure and pain
Leading me out from the rain
(And living in a fantasy)
Finding the truth in their eyes
No one can tell how it feels
(Still ... in my honesty)
... just they tried

... your hearts with my sins
