

Mark of Cain

Secrets of the Moon

I spear the wings now cain has released the dark brother bring the devil's thunder rabid winds and sacred storms whatever is between us it is here there's no room, it aches it burns acid showers pouring down you bring abject dark I bring the world

shine now rampant light eerie beauty timeless signal victorious center of deceit we fall into spaces blind a maze of filth and rotten skies you're the only one to look inside

cain - murderer - maker

down in eden's deepest grave we all come in from the burning let the undercurrent drag you along find them - beat the horse look in every corner they can help you

they can extinguish the inside they needed to tell you that time is running out but they could not no they could not

they could not

please - lookout - help us - find us tie us to the ground
