

Total eclipse of the sky
The earth lies in shadows
When the moon shines its cold light
When this time has come
My mind will be spinning around
A battle against my inner thoughts
It's like a cut in my soul
To reach out beautiful sadness
Satisfy my deepest dreams
Feeling of total deliverance
Voller Sehnsucht überkommt mich der Moment
Wo das Schwert meine Seele trennt
Sailà
Possessed by all that's unknown
Walking through my inner beauty
When you come to the bleeding point
When you realize, you can't go on
With your existence
That's the moment where tears divide the beauty
When my body is on fire, and my soul
Sets me free, I know I am there
Total eclipse of the sky...
