

Veronica's Room

Secrets of the Moon

Once buried soul
Defeats the dark
Cries out
Escapes the silence

Requiem
The needle plays
Veronica keeps dancing all day
Down

Dionysos
The door is locked
Catharsis and gloria

I haunt you
Gathered myself
I am lost and you are too

Cold lights in the dark
Me within the temple and the devilish one
Veronicas room is empty from inside

You're here with me
I am not
I swallowed the key to the stars

Holy shrine
Someone died
Blood steps out from the inside

Cold lights in the dark
Me within the temple and the devilish one
Veronicas Room is empty from inside
Cold lights you're running from
Me the raging devil and the light become one
Veronicas Room
A place to seek and hide

Believing dark
Blood from the inside
Believing dark
Come I will save you
