

Fraud

Secrets

Bite down your tongue
Just stop and save it
I knew you would lie
I fucking called it

Can you hear yourself when you're talking to me
Or do you just think I'm scum underneath your feet
Is there anything inside that thick hard skull of yours
You live like karma is never gonna come around

Don't you think you can get away
I tried to save your sorry ass but now I wanna make you pay

One of these days you're gonna hit the ground
And we're all waiting for you to crash down
One of these days
One of these days you're gonna fuck around
And then you'll end up lost
And never to be found

Go find your own way out
You'll never make it if you can't stop
Running your mouth so shut up

The thought of your face, it makes my stomach twist
At this rate if you keep it up you're gonna face your fate quick

Time catches up with all of us
You can't just act like you're immune to everything you fuck up
Descend from your tower
Or I'll climb up that bitch and pull you down you coward

One of these days you're gonna hit the ground
And we're all waiting for you to crash down
One of these days
One of these days you're gonna fuck around
And then you'll end up lost
And never to be found

I watched you too many times
Walk around with your head held way too high
Living a lie

Step down

I watched you too many times
Walk around with your head held way too high
(Living a lie)
You're a coward, a fraud, a fake
No one likes you and you've made your last mistake
