

The End

Secrets

I can't escape you
I can't erase you
I know that I'd be better off if I just go
I hate to love you
And I love to hate you
I know it's sick but fuck it, that's the way it goes

Cause you know the hole inside
And you fill it up just right
With poison daggers fill me up, keep me down
And I've wasted so much time
Living in an endless fight
When you say you love me all I hear are my doubts

We're falling apart
My heart's at the edge
And I feel like jumping and not looking back
Your roses have thorns
For too long I've bled
And I'm sick of watching love turning black
Let's be honest Autumn brought us to the end

And it's not worth it
No it's not healthy
Sinking your teeth in just to show me that you care
I hate to say it
But I think you've earned it
One single look at you is more than I can bear

Cause you know the hole inside
And you fill it up just right
With poison daggers fill me up, keep me down
And I've wasted so much time
Cause you gave me nothing

We're falling apart
My heart's at the edge
And I feel like jumping and not looking back
Your roses have thorns
For too long I've bled
And I'm sick of watching love turning black
Let's be honest Autumn brought us to the end

Born to co-depend
You've made a mess, left a stain on me, oh no
You wanna play pretend
Whoa oh it's time to grow up, be free to be who I am

We're falling apart
My heart's at the edge
And I feel like jumping and not looking back
Your roses have thorns
I'll be honest falling feels like a friend
If it gets you out of my head

This is over now I'm
Never turning back
You'll never have me back
You did hear me
This is over now I'm
