

Waste Away

Secrets

Hallelujah I can set you free

I see the hole inside you
It's permanent
You dug it up
Now you can bury it
Throw all the pills you want
Inside but you can't fill it up
So just give it up

Hallelujah
Hallelujah I can set you free
From this reoccurring misery
That haunts you
Every night you sleep

But you just
Waste away
While you're slipping through the cracks, slipping through the cracks
Swallowing everything
Just to get a little more
Get a little more fucked up

So when you're looking back
And you realize that I'm not there anymore you can find me at the top
Where I've belonged my entire life
You're always dragging me down
You're always dragging me down, down, down
You try and pull me under when you start to drown, drown, drown

So just set me free
You are the weight beneath tied to my feet
I'm not giving up
You're just giving in
Look at the mess you've made
Look at the life you live
I'm done pretending

Stop your ways and make a change
Before you fade away and face your fate the hard way

Waste away
Swallowing everything
Just to get a little more
Get a little more fucked up
