

After the Rain

Seelennacht

You stand in the rain, I'm feeling the same
You stand in the rain, rain... rain
A part of the dark we're gonna be
You wait for a sign, for a better time
You wait for a sign, sign... sign
And you pray for a better day

Cause after the rain there will be the sun
All of your bad days, they will be gone
We can set our souls so high
We can reach the sky
And after the rain there will be the sun
All of your bad days, they will be gone
We can set our souls so high
We can touch the sky

It's raining down right on the ground
It's raining down, down... down
We drown, drown in a sea
I want a light, I want to redesign
I want a light, light... light
I want the sky clearing up for me

Oh we can touch the sky
We long for a try

And after the rain there will be the sun
All of your bad days, they will be gone
You can set your soul so high, high, high, oh so high...!
Just give it a try...!

It's raining down on the ground
It's raining down, down on the ground
It's raining down, down, down...
Now it stops to rain, I feel the same
Life has its comeback after the rain
After the rain, the rain...
And I remember when I was gone with the rain
