Changes

Changes – Time will never stop changing

This is the moment I will realign
This is the time to reinforce your mind
Could another light guide me on my way
To the beloved place I want to stay

A retrospective of a former life
I commemorate and leave my past behind
Oh my promised land, where are you gone?
Where is the love that has just begun?

All the changes we went through
All the times I've been with you
I will never forget

Made us to the beings who we are
In this life we've gone so far
I see the lighthouse

Where is the promised land on earth?
When it's time for its rebirth?
Where will we be?

There I am longing for a soul
That combines with mine at all
The seas still whisper to me

This is the moment I will come to life
Against the days I felt numb inside
Far away reliance
Far away of common shores
You are so distant

Every day
And every moment
Every motion
I want to intervene
Every breath
And every notion
To start again, the love I want to feel

All these changes made me to the one I am
All these changes made us to the ones we are
