

Out of the Night

Seelennacht

This is the end we're torn apart
There's no-one left to heal your heart
I feel so cold and numb inside
Come take me out of the night

I feel the rain, I feel alone
Where is the place been once called home?
I'll lay the rest to past one day
Give me a need to stay

I lie amidst the shards of hope
Amidst the shards

And when the shores divide our souls
And when my life runs out of control
Then I am searching for my way
I wish you'd take me away

Please take me away
Take me away, into your arms, and
Out of the night
Into the light
Out of the night
Into your arms to save me

And every time I'm looking back
I see these lies they make me sad
Allay my fears from long ago
Behind the hills there is more

I will survive, I will stand tall
Against black kingdoms praised to fall
A paradise still awaits me
Now come and set me free

I rise again and will stand tall
I will stand tall
