

Can't Go Wrong

Seether

I don't want to be the one exposed to the places no one goes
I don't want to be the one who feels like a leper and I don't want to get left behind in the places that I hide
I don't want to be the one who caves under pressure

It's really easy to doubt me
I've got a feeling this can't go wrong
My reputation precedes me
I've got a feeling this can't go wrong

I don't want to have my will imposed
Or the darkness diagnosed
I don't want to be the one who's kneeling forever and I don't want to fear the day I die
Or feel the pain unamplified
I don't want to be the tie you've chosen to sever

It's really easy to doubt me
I've got a feeling this can't go wrong
My reputation precedes me
I've got a feeling this can't go wrong

It's really easy to doubt me
I've got a feeling this can't go wrong
My reputation precedes me
I've got a feeling this can't go wrong

My reputation precedes me
I've got a feeling this can't go wrong
