

Liar

Seether

There's a break in the weather but I'm never gonna fade away
There's a saying it's now or never and this is never gonna wash away

So don't you wear that frown and don't you be forlorn
There's a break in the weather and it's sure nice not to feel

So take heed of voices that conspire
Make me walk this path alone
My sanity keeps unraveling despite this
I'm burning in the fire
I'm labeled as a liar

From today I will do better
Because I never want to feel the shame
With every vein that I have severed
I have struggled with what I became
I will not let you down
I won't be cause for harm
So today I will do better and I sure hope this can heal

So take heed of voices that conspire
Make me walk this path alone
My sanity keeps unraveling despite this
I'm burning in the fire
I'm labeled as a liar

But I can't bring you here
But I can't bring you here
But I can't bring you here
Oooh
Oooh

So take heed of voices that conspire
Make me walk this path alone
My sanity keeps unraveling despite this
I'm burning in the fire
I'm labeled as a liar

I'm burning in the fire I'm labeled as a liar
I'm burning in the fire I'm labeled as a liar
